"Terms" means these Terms of Engagement.

"You/Your" means the individual whose details are detailed in the Letter of Authority. Unless the context otherwise requires, words in the singular include the plural and in the plural include the singular.

1. What WILL We do for You?

Upon receipt of Your signed Terms, we will conduct a free flight disruption check to establish whether You have a valid claim. To assist, please supply a copy of Your booking reference. If You don't have a copy, we will contact Your Airline to try and find out the information about the flight.

If we determine that You have a valid Claim(s) which fall under UK legal jurisdiction, we will contract with our UK Legal Partner, MLM, who may investigate Your Claim(s) in relation to Your and any additional passenger(s) flight delay, denied boarding or flight cancellation, including lost, delayed or damaged baggage Claim(s). My Law Matters shall pass information they receive from the Airline to us, and we shall conclude the investigation. This is included in the free flight disruption checking service.

My Law Matters may contact Your Airline to make a Claim(s) on Your behalf, which could include making a complaint with the Airline's alternative dispute resolution scheme, or issuing Court proceedings against the Airline on Your behalf if the Airline does not uphold Your Claim(s).

My Law Matters is a trading style of Fentiman Legal Ltd. Fentiman Legal Ltd is registered in England and Wales under registration number 12661534, registered office 84 Salop Street, Wolverhampton, West Midlands, WV3 0SR, United Kingdom, authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (number 800557).

If we determine You have a valid EU jurisdiction claim, we will submit a complaint on Your behalf to the Airline. If liability is denied, we will then refer Your claim on to one of our European Legal Partners, within the relevant jurisdiction.

2. Your Authority

By signing your Authority and Agreement, you confirm that if We assess your claim and court proceedings are required, then We will refer your claim to MLM. You also consent for all claims discovered with all Airlines by Us may be immediately referred to MLM and for your signature(s) to be applied to all MLM documents, a copy of which will be sent to you confirming all fees and MLM's cancellation policy. By signing this Letter Of Authority, you consent for Us to transfer all relevant documentation that will support your Airline claim to MLM.

3. What WON'T We do for You?

Give/offer You legal advice.

Contract with My Law Matters or one of our European Legal Partners if in our opinion You have no realistic chance of success, and we reserve the right to cancel this Agreement in this event.

4. What do we require You to do?

In accepting these terms and conditions, you also agree:

That you will share with and provide within a reasonable time from receipt of a request to Us, a copy of all emails, letters and any other electronic or hard copy communications between you and your airline.

To act in good faith towards Us and not take any steps to deprive Us of any sums due to Us under this agreement.

Provide us with clear Instructions.

Not mislead us, provide false information or ask us to act in an improper or unreasonable way.

To provide us with the authority to pursue Court claims and/or complaints in your name against your airline. Such authority extends to permitting us or our nominated legal advisors to signing Statements of Truth on Statements of Case, Witness Statements and any other Court documents.

To Us indemnifying you in the event an adverse costs order is made against you in Court proceedings.

To receiving marketing material in respect of any other potential claims/complaints against lenders, airlines and any other business entity.

Provide us with the authority to act on Your behalf.

By signing these Terms You are instructing us that You have the consent of all other additional passengers listed to make Claim(s) on their behalf and You are agreeing to be the lead passenger.

For passengers under the age of 18, You consent that the lead passenger may act as the Litigation Friend to that minor, and grant permission for us to settle any claim on behalf of any minors without the necessity for an Infant Approval Hearing.

5. Fees

UK Jurisdiction

We will conduct a free flight disruption checking service.

We will only charge a fee if Your claim is successful.

If we undertake the Claims Services and are not successful in obtaining Compensation, then You owe us nothing.

If we are successful in obtaining an offer or payment of Compensation then You owe us the Fee of 35% of the Compensation which has been offered or received. For example if You receive Compensation of £520, the Fee would be £182 plus VAT. This is applicable to all additional passenger Claim(s). In all cases we charge an Administration Fee of £15 + VAT per passenger. Fees are subject to VAT at the prevailing rate as determined by HM Revenue and Customs.

If we instruct our law firm partner to commence legal action, then You owe us a Fee of 50% inclusive of VAT where applicable, to cover the additional costs involved for litigation. We reserve the right to charge additional Disbursements where necessarily incurred in pursuing the case through litigation.

You agree to authorise the Airline to remit the Compensation to us and agree that we shall deduct the Fee(s) plus VAT (where applicable) before paying the balance of the Compensation to You.

We will, as soon as is reasonably practicable following the payment of Compensation by the Airline, pay You the balance of the Compensation, after deducting all specified Fee(s). Where You have more than one successful Claim against one or more Airlines, we may deduct from any Compensation paid the Fee(s) plus VAT (where applicable) payable in respect of each of the Claim(s).

When we receive an offer of Compensation from your airline, we will contact you to request your payment information. If you provide incorrect or incomplete or missing payment information and the Flight Compensation amounts paid to you are returned to us, then we will make every reasonable effort to contact you. This may include sending email reminders and using other communication methods you have provided. If you fail to respond with the correct payment details, we reserve the right to retain the portion of the Flight Compensation that should have been transferred to you.

Fee(s) plus VAT (where applicable) become due at the point that either we or You are informed of an offer of Compensation and payable from the date You receive Your Compensation. If the Airline offers or pays Compensation to You directly, You agree to notify us immediately (and within seven days at the latest) and to provide the details we need to calculate the Fee(s). For the avoidance of doubt, should You reject a reasonable offer of Compensation the Fee plus VAT (where applicable) remains due on the sum offered and payable by You within seven days of receiving the offer of Compensation.

If You fail to pay the Fee(s) plus VAT (where applicable) due and payable in accordance with these Terms, We reserve the right to cancel all other active Claims.

If you fail to notify us of the value of the Compensation offered to you we reserve the right to charge the Fee(s) plus VAT (where applicable).

EU Jurisdiction

We will conduct a free flight disruption checking service.

If we are successful in obtaining a reasonable offer or payment of Compensation, then You will owe us the Fee of 35% of the Compensation that You have been offered or receive. This means, for example: if You receive Compensation of €600 the Fee would be €210. We will charge an administration fee of €18 per passenger when we obtain a reasonable offer or payment of Compensation. These Fees may be subject to VAT (Value Added Tax) at the prevailing rate applicable to the Jurisdiction.

If we instruct our European law firm partner to commence legal action, then You owe us a Fee of 50% inclusive of VAT where applicable, to cover the additional costs involved for litigation. We reserve the right to charge additional Disbursements where necessarily incurred in pursuing the case through litigation.

You agree to authorise the Airline to remit the Compensation to Us and agree that We shall deduct the Fee(s) plus VAT where applicable before paying the balance of the Compensation to You.

We will, as soon as is reasonably practicable following the settlement of a Claim(s) and the payment of Compensation by the Airline to us, pay You the balance of the Compensation, after deducting the Fee(s) plus VAT (where applicable). Where You have more than one successful Claim against one or more Airlines, We may deduct from any Compensation paid the Fee(s) plus VAT (where applicable) payable in respect of each of the Claims.

When we receive an offer of Compensation from your airline, we will contact you to request your payment information. If you provide incorrect or incomplete or missing payment information and the Flight Compensation amounts paid to you are returned to us, then we will make every reasonable effort to contact you. This may include sending email reminders and using other communication methods you have provided. If you fail to respond with the correct payment details, we reserve the right to retain the portion of the Flight Compensation that should have been transferred to you.

Fee(s) plus VAT (where applicable) become due at the point that either We or You are informed of an offer of Compensation and payable from the date You receive Your Compensation. If the Airline offers or pays Compensation to You directly, You agree to notify us immediately (and within seven days at the latest) and to provide the details We need to calculate the Fee(s). Should You reject a reasonable offer of Compensation the Fee plus VAT (where applicable) remains due on the sum offered and payable by You within seven days of receiving the offer of Compensation.

We will invoice You for the Fee(s) plus VAT (where applicable) which will become immediately payable by You to us from the date You receive Your Compensation.

We reserve the right to charge for costs and expenses incurred in recovering unpaid Fees plus VAT (where applicable) where an offer or payment of Compensation is made from an Airline to You. These Terms shall continue to operate until all Claims where a Fee(s) plus VAT (where applicable) is payable have been settled.

*If You are based in the UK then VAT (where applicable) will be charged at the current rate. For customers who are based outside the UK VAT (where applicable) will only be charged where applicable according to the prevailing statutory regulations. The determination of whether VAT (where applicable) applies will depend on the jurisdiction and specific circumstances of each case.

You acknowledge that touristic vouchers or offers of any other services may not be accepted as Compensation by us.

You acknowledge that it is Our sole decision whether to accept or reject any offer of a partial Compensation payment made by the Airline.

If the Airline or Your nominated financial institution receive Your Compensation, applies a Foreign Transaction Fee, You are responsible for the cost of this fee.

6. Non-Payment of Fees Due

In the event that a fee due to us by You remains unpaid after 45 days then late payment interest will be calculated at 8% per annum from the date that the fee became due until the date payment is made.

Where fees remain unpaid and We are forced to either take Court action or appoint a debt collection agency to recover outstanding monies, We reserve the right to increase the amount owed by the amount equivalent to the cost of that recovery. A Court may award additional cost and/or statutory interest at the rate of 8% above the Bank of England rate.

7. Cancelling this Agreement

We can cancel this Agreement at any time. There is no cancellation fee if we cancel our Agreement to carry out a free flight disruption checking service for You.

You have the right to terminate this Agreement within 14 days by giving notice, by emailing info@airdelayed.com. Any cancellation must be made by way of a cancellation notice or by a clear statement to us. There is no cancellation fee if You ask us not to go ahead with the free flight disruption checking service.

If You cancel Your Claim(s) within the Cancellation Period You will owe us nothing, unless You have received a reasonable offer of Compensation within this period. In this case, we shall be entitled to charge You a cancellation charge equal to the Fee(s) plus VAT (where applicable) that would be payable under clause 4 above.

If You cancel the Claim(s) at any time after the Cancellation Period, we may charge a cancellation charge which will be reasonable and proportionate to the work done and the costs incurred by us up to the point of cancellation. This cancellation charge will be the time spent on Your Claim(s) by us charged at £150 plus VAT per hour. If Your case is referred to one of our EU Legal Partners, You will be provided with a copy of the relevant cancellation process, fees and charges.

8. Use of Signature

By signing these Terms, You consent for Your signature to be applied to a letter to the Airlinerequesting they deal directly with Us, or our law partner in UK or EU Jurisdiction, and/or the Airline's alternative dispute resolution scheme form. In respect of any minors, You consent to addYour signature to a Certificate of Suitability to act on their behalf in relation to any Court proceedings and/or legal pack and Letter of Authority. For additional passengers over the age of 18, to expedite the claim process we will utilise digital signatures to send to the airline in support of the claim.

9. Complaints Procedure

Should You have a complaint You can contact us by writing to Air Delayed at 84 Salop Street, Wolverhampton, WV3 0SR, United Kingdom, by phone on 0330 808 8636 or by email to compliance@airdelayed.com. Full details of our complaints handling procedure can be viewed on our website: <https://airdelayed.com/complaints-procedure/>.

10. Data Protection

We will hold, control, and process Your personal information in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018, the UK General Data Protection Regulations and the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations. By providing Your personal information to us, You explicitly authorise us to process the information for the purpose set out in this paragraph. You can, at anytime, request a copy of all information we hold relating to You by writing to us (a written Data Subject Access Request in accordance with the Data Protection Act/GDPR). We will use the personal information You provide to assess Your claim and carry out our duties in accordance with this Agreement. We may share Your personal information with other companies if necessary, to process Your claim for Compensation, or any financial matters we believe may be of assistance to You.

Your personal information may also be processed by other organisations, including credit reference agencies, on our behalf for the purpose of processing Your claims and providing information or services to You. The use of Your personal information for these purposes will remain under our control at all times. You can change Your mind at any time. Please visit our privacy policy: <https://airtravelclaim.com/privacypolicy/>. This will not affect Your credit score.

We may, from time to time, expand or reduce our business which may involve the sale and/or transfer of control of all or part of Legal Ventures Ltd. In this case, Your data could be transferred along with that part and the new owner or newly controlling party will be permitted to use the data for the purposes for which it was originally supplied to us.

11. Other Important Information

You are entitled to seek further advice in relation to Your claim and to consider what services might be most appropriate for Your claim for Compensation. In particular You have the right to shop around, or You can contact Your Airline directly. You should also consider whether You have alternative mechanisms for pursuing a claim, for example, legal expenses insurance.

Each party irrevocably agrees that any proceedings relating to any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with this Agreement or its subject matter shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and the parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales.

We reserve the right to assign all rights in these Terms and to subcontract to others all or any of our obligations under it.

I/We have read the Terms & Conditions and agree to be bound by their contents. A copy of the Terms & Conditions can be found on the reverse of the welcome letter. Please keep this document safe, as this is Your contract between You and us. Full T&C's can be viewed here: www.airdelayed.com/terms-and-conditions/
